now enjoys under the wise laws framed by the founders of this government.

Foreign-born citizens who now enjoy this right will hardly help elect men who will deprive them thereof. They cannot with consistency support a party which convicts at such a policy. Such voters will read the above list with much interest and note that all but one or two of them are Republicans, and that over two-thirds of them are candidates on the Republican tickets, State or local, now before the people seeking their suffrages. Among them is Gen. William Vandever, who asks foreign Republicans to support him for Congress. There is no place where a man's influence, if he has any, is more potent than in Congress. There he can ventilate his views, and so spread the seeds of his sentiments. Foreign-born voters will remember that it is a fair inference that should a bill to bar foreign-born citizens be proposed in Congress, Gen. Vandever would vote for that measure.

Ira G. Hoyt is another name found on their ticket and on the Republican ticket. Here is another office, that of Superintendent of Public Instruction, where such sentiments may be fostered and spread in a dangerous way. James W. Rea is there too. He wants to be Railroad Commissioner. Observe that five of the six Congressmen are the men who figure on the Know Nothing and on the Republican ticket at one and the same time. The foreign citizen is likely to remember this on election day.

The Taxes Again.
Certain of the Republican orators on the stump in this county are amusing themselves and their hearers by making statements to the effect that the Democrats are responsible for the high taxes ruling hereabouts these times. One of the State speakers in this city a few nights ago had the effrontery to say that his party had done all that had ever been done in the Anti-Chinese matter. We must say speakers who make statements so very wide of the mark must put a very low value on the intelligence of the Republicans who are supposed to make up these gatherings. In this city and county the Republican party has a clear majority of all the offices. Not a measure can pass but by their action. They have paid off no Democratic debts since they came into office. On the contrary, the county has received $80,000 railroad taxes, delinquent from Democratic days. In view of these patent facts, speakers who make such statements lack in a very marked degree either ordinary information or ordinary truthfulness. It was the Republican party which raised the county taxes from $361,000 to $731,000. It was the same party which raised the city taxes from $195,000 to $295,000. Tax-payers would not complain if there was anything substantial to show for this. The community is exceptionally prosperous and able to pay a fair amount for the support of local government and internal improvements. But, no community is sufficiently rich to pay taxes which are not judiciously expended. It is extravagant the taxpayers will not endure.

By the way, some time ago one of the Republican councilmen is reported to have said the hole at the corner of Spring and Second streets was dug by Jake Kuhrt. As he is about the only Democrat that sits in the council, it is a little obscure how he came to out-vote the thirteen Republicans who sit with him.

Grand Democratic Rally.
There will be a grand rally of the local Democracy to-night at the junction of Main, Spring and Temple streets. Col. John P. Irish, the distinguished and eloquent editor of the San Francisco Alta, will be the chief speaker. Mr. Irish is one of the most graceful, fluent and fascinating speakers in the country. To hear him will be indeed a rare pleasure. Let there be a great turn-out of all the party to give him a good welcome. The assembly will be addressed also by Mr. W. R. Jacobs, of Tulare, who is one of the rising young orators of the State.

The Tribune disapproves of the action of the Democratic Central Committee in offering a reward for the detection of illegal voting. It punches a hole in the little wind-bag. It waxes wrath about "low-bred scamps who have been known to deliver voters who voted for so much a head, but to fasten such crimes on the Republican party is both dishonest and untrue." Not so fast, neighbor. We will be charitable to you as a stranger. You are not here long enough or you would know that if ever an election was corruptly carried, it was in this southern end of the State two years ago, and the corruption fund and its results were Republican. Now a man who sells a vote belongs to no party, and the man who buys one, while he may not be a "low-bred scamp," but a high-bred millionaire, is just as guilty in the eyes of the law as the poor devil, who in his ignorance and need sells it. The law is probably half right. The buyers probably ought to suffer a double penalty.

Day by day, our esteemed brethren in the Republican camp, whirling to keep up the courage of the weak, raise the majority by which Swift is to pull across the bay, out of San Francisco. They know, as well as they know anything, that Swift was beaten a week after he was nominated. The party started out with a city of magnetism and extravagant taxes. Swift got into the rural districts, and everywhere his very presence hastened the approach of winter. The beans and tomato vines froze in his wake. Then in San Francisco went up such a protest against the high tax proposition, that every platform formed there—and there are nine of them—had to adopt the dollar limit. It is well known that only a good business man and experienced financier like Bartlett or Pond can carry on a economical administration. Mere politicians like Swift are always extravagant and swamp the ship of State. It is all nonsense to talk of Swift carrying anything except his own conceit. Even that, too, will be reduced at an early day.

The Legislature.
An esteemed contemporary of the Republican persuasion is greatly disturbed in mind about the Legislative ticket and its fate in the coming election. An effort is made to create the impression that the Democratic party is making a special fight for that part of the ticket. Now, as pointed out in these columns, it is notorious that this is about the only part of the Republican ticket in which that party has any sort of warm interest. For some reason, press and party on that side of the political fence is lethargic to an alarming degree about the fate of their State ticket, and for the county offices the office-holders are the only men who are making any fight.

But getting to the Legislature, and here there is a little warmth. There is a Senator behind that body, and it is a notoriously scandalous affair that the "friends" of A. A. Sargent are moving Heaven and Earth, and one might couple Hell, to compass the election of their man. Higgins, the boss of San Francisco, has put his "kids" on that ticket right and left. The Chronicle says these men are of the most abandoned stripe. Keepers of brothels, men guilty of felonies, low-down rascals who cannot even read, that journal states are on the Legislative ticket. This action of the Boss of the Bay City has been, after the nomination of Swift, the mistake of his life. He certainly went too far. The decent elements of the party are up in arms against his "kids," and great will be the slaughter on election day. This drives the managers into the country as the last ditch in this losing fight. To secure the Legislature and the Senator, three-fourths of all the country districts must be secured at any cost. The game is a desperate one, but will not be given up until the last card is played. All over the State it is now in progress, but the wire-pullers will be ennobled, and Sargent will stay at home.

Because the Express has failed to learn the policy of the Democratic party, that esteemed journal is suffering from a nightmare in the shape of a shadow of an idea that the party in question lacks a policy. Mr. Blaine is an able man in some respects. He has caught the idea, although that is not a Herculean task of intellect, however much so it may appear to some people. Why, the Express has never been able to learn its own policy. But that is another matter not very wonderful. Nobody else has been able to catch that evanescent nightmare of thought. Now, if Mr. Blaine could only get on to that lay, he would achieve an intellectual triumph of no mean order—or else people would think he had gone mad.

Lynch, Democratic candidate for Congress in the Sixth California Congressional District, to address in the various towns and cities of the district: Pomona, Saturday, October 23; Santa Ana, Sunday, October 24; Anaheim, Monday, October 25; Pasadena, Tuesday, October 26.

The First Ward Democratic Rally.

The meeting of the Democrats of the First Ward last evening was a grand success. There were not less than 500 present. The music by the band was fully appreciated, as were the speeches by the various gentlemen who so ably addressed the enthusiastic gathering.
The following gentlemen were selected as the officers of the meeting: William Vickery, President; Geo. Butler Griffin, Secretary; Vice-Presidents—S. W. Mitchell, Benito Valle, Wm. C. Hughes, L. L. Bauecht, Walter Devereux, W. B. Pritchard, Henry Kuhn, Peter Keenan, Wm. Lacy Chas. H. Wain, H. Thomas, M. Botello, W. H. Riggs, Joseph Mullally, J. Baldwin, W. B. Salmon, S. N. Entler, J. R. Rhodes, W. Lewis, B. Murphy, J. Davidson, E. M. Hamilton, Thomas McGaffrey, J. P. Anderson, R. L. Ryan, J. J. Hanford, C. P. Thurston, J. Embury, Jr., P. P. Puts, S. Grant, V. L. Sanchez, J. LeMessurier, Barney Cohen and E. T. Tice.
Mayor Wicks, Esq., first addressed the assembly, and then, in a masterly manner, demonstrated not only that as a party the Democrats are the party of the people, but that individually the nominees of the party are entitled to the confidence and support of the voters of the county and the State. The limited space of the program will not admit of a full account of the powerful effort of Mr. Wicks, which quite sustained the reputation of that gentleman as a scholastic and accomplished orator.
The next speaker was Mr. Terrence Conroy, who in a manly and forcible address showed his complete familiarity with the wants of the people in the matter of the charter, and especially with the irrigation needs of the people of Southern California. As a laboring class representative so important an element of the Democracy, Mr. Conroy is a credit to the party.
Mr. White was the next speaker and in the way so familiar to the people of Los Angeles, Mr. White gave reason for the faith that was in him, as a Democrat. His argument was a clear and logical exposition of the needs of Southern California. In his way of purpose and felicity of diction he expressed his full knowledge of the wants of the people in the matter of the charter, and especially with the irrigation needs of the people of Southern California. As a laboring class representative so important an element of the Democracy, Mr. Conroy is a credit to the party.

Judge A. J. King then followed and fully showed his fitness for the office for which he has been nominated. The hearty applause which greeted him showed how firmly he is established in the respect and esteem of the community of which he has been so long an honored member.

J. M. HALE & CO'S COLUMN.

The Farmer's Surprise.

Upon a steep hillside, where the honeysuckles grew,
Where the sweet MARGUERITES and VIOLETS blue,
Were blooming side by side—here, for a great part of his life,
Lived old FARMER GREEN and his kind-hearted wife.

Three daughters—Lucy, Fanny and May—
Helped the old couple to pass pleasantly away
The time; and many a smile to the villagers staid
In return for some kind remark they had made.

One evening when at the tea-table they were sitting,
And a moth 'round the candle was noiselessly flitting,
Lucy, the youngest, of course, of the sisters three,
Said: "Father, please listen a moment to me."

And she read from the HERALD about cheap goods in town,
About "bunkum" stock and prices marked down.
The latest New York styles designated by "We,"
And wonderful bargains where "the freight had been free."

And she read still further about a "colossal" undertaking,
From the effects of which Los Angeles was still quaking,
And a general description of a HOUSE she had read,
Which never followed others, but in fact "always led."

So they talked the thing over—father, mother and all,
And decided, as they needed a great many goods this Fall,
That this would be the time, while prices were low—
So father and Lucy were chosen to go.

Next morning came, and when breakfast was over
Old DOBBIN was brought in from his pasture on clover,
Hitched up to the BUCKBOARD and started off in great style,
Tolerably fast—each half hour—a mile.

Arriving in town a little before noon
They dined at the hotel and started out soon
To make their purchases, not dreaming of the dismay
That would be written on their faces ere the close of the day.

They went to the store where the "freights had been free,"
That the freights had been there clearly could see.
And to each other store—but one—a visit they gave,
But found nothing now, nor any money could they save.

Then, tired and dispirited, they stopped for their "mail,"
And an idea struck them—"We'll go over and see HALE,"
Take a look at the goods he advertises so cheap—
No harm to be done in taking a peep.

When they got in the store great trouble they found
In finding some one to show them around—
Every clerk was busy—a great deal was being done—
But finally they were waited on by genial No. 1.

They bought a bolt of 10-4 Sheeting at 15c. per yard,
And bleached Muslin at 3c. and less,
And a whole piece of Tricot—Hale's latest card—
Sufficient to make them all a new dress.

Fifty yards of Flannel at twenty-five cents,
And a comforter, full length and wide,
For seventy-five cents—its size was immense—
And figured neatly, too, on each side.

Then to the Blanket department they made their way,
And were surprised at what they saw there—
$1.25 for 10-4 Blankets—brown, white and grey—
Such prices they could not compare.

They bought six pairs of white ones at this price,
The old gentleman smiling all over his face—
He knew his wife would say they were nice,
And give him credit for having good taste.

What the continuation of this was will be easily explained by a visit on NEXT WEDNESDAY, October 27th, to the crowded store of J. M. HALE & CO., 7 and 9 Spring street.

Productiveness of Capital.

Between the two great extremes—Capital, which produces, and Labor, which not only the foundation of production, with the aid of Capital, but the natural consumer, there must be established a given mean, which will not only have a tendency to bind closer the interests of both concerned, but modify influences which brought to bear upon either side. The demand for exchange increases and decreases the cost of an article. When trade is brisk, when competition exists, values will be forced upon the market that otherwise would be inactive upon the shelf, or within the warehouse of the manufacturer.

by ballot, by the qualified electors of the State on TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 2, 1886.

The amendment designated "Amendment Number One," and the ballots used at such election must contain the words, "FOR THE AMENDMENT Number One," or the words, "AGAINST THE AMENDMENT Number One," written or printed thereon.

And I do hereby offer a reward of one hundred dollars for the arrest and conviction of any and every person violating any of the provisions of Title IV, Part I, of the Penal Code; such reward to be paid until the total amount expended hereafter for the purpose reaches the sum of ten thousand dollars.

Witness my hand and the Great Seal of the State, the day and year first written above.

(SEAL) GEORGE STONEMAN, Governor.

ATTEST: T. L. THOMPSON, Secretary of State.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT a general election will be held throughout the State on Tuesday, the Second day of November,

A. D. Eighteen Hundred and Eighty-Six, when the following officers will be elected, to-wit:

"Read me for my cause, and be patient that I may read."—SHAKESPEARE.

The Greatest Study of Mankind is Man.

The greatest study of mankind is man. And who ever has framed a doctrine, whether by deity, fruit or wit, has not been able to give a full and complete account of a creature of such delicate and so many-sided nature.

To do him honor.

Who remembers not how the distressed and the child's entreaties tries to soothe, that she is not the most horrible case taken, the remembrance of a now does nausea.

And, further, to be witness of his child's torture, would pay high price, if money could purchase Catholicism.

How it is now and great Dr. Pratt's name, appears upon the seal of the California State, for after long study what would sell, his upon the seal of the State.

To cure our ills.

Away at once with draughts and pills; for whether it be indigestion, liver complaint or constipation, or any disease of the bowels, he is the only one who can cure it.

He is the only one who can cure it. He is the only one who can cure it. He is the only one who can cure it.

At Proprietor, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, 33, 34, 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 40, 41, 42, 43, 44, 45, 46, 47, 48, 49, 50, 51, 52, 53, 54, 55, 56, 57, 58, 59, 60, 61, 62, 63, 64, 65, 66, 67, 68, 69, 70, 71, 72, 73, 74, 75, 76, 77, 78, 79, 80, 81, 82, 83, 84, 85, 86, 87, 88, 89, 90, 91, 92, 93, 94, 95, 96, 97, 98, 99, 100.

Chills and Fever. Malaria. Many cases of fever and ague, dumb ague and ague, were promptly arrested and entirely banished by the use of Simons' Liver Regulator. You don't say half enough of the good of this valuable medicine in cases of ague, in malarial fevers, etc. Every case has been arrested and banished by the use of this medicine.

However successful a man may be in retaining the authority of his wife elsewhere, he will have to do his bidding.

Woman's Face. "What furniture can give such a finish to a room as a woman's face," asks George Killet. Not any, we are happy to say, that can give such a finish to a room as a woman's face.

Best Goods are Put in Smallest Parcels. The old proverb is certainly true in the case of the "Pleasant Purge" pills, which are little, sugar-coated pills, scarcely larger than mustard seeds, containing as much cathartic power as a large pill.

which they are proud and representative finance committee, that meets well, talks well and plans well, contemplates great achievement, but never achieves it; or who or realizes them; takes lists of names soon, but never has time to see. Another or has so much to do that he cannot enough, complains of everybody and does nothing well himself. All these are the men of the world.
The man of God must be mentioned, which if persisted in will certainly home-comb and sink our country and ruin our most system, planned by the shrewdest wisdom of the mightiest Rothschild or Vanderbilt or Rockefeller.

It is said that the Young Men's Christian Association is a business institution and means business. It means business in the sense of Christ's work, and must be conducted on business principles. Good himself said it when Paul wrote to the Church

2. We are not a benevolent association to disburse the alms of the community to the poor.

We are not a temperance society. There are all good works, but we were not organized to do any of these things. We were organized to do definite work for young men with young men, and we would not do this work.

First—Because we were organized to do this work.

Young men are exposed to many peculiar temptations in the ordinary avocations of business. Our daughters are exposed to many temptations of our homes. The boys go away from home.

Third—There is another organization of young men, the Young Men's Christian Association, which aims to do a specific work for our young women. None of our work is done for young women.

First—Let the main reliance of the association be on the young men.

DIED.

FUNERAL NOTICES ONE DOLLAR.

BUSTER—In this city, October 22d, Wm. A. Buster, aged 66 years.

The funeral will take place from the corner of Twelfth and Hope streets to-day (Saturday) at 10 a. m. Friends and acquaintances are invited to attend without further notice.
